

SATURDAY NIGHT LIVE!

Having launched our phenomenal season of Saturday night live dinner & live show events every Saturday throughout July & August with the brilliant London Community Gospel Choir appearing on Saturday 2 July 2011, The Harbour Garden Cafe on the South Quay in Whitstable Harbour are pleased to announce that we'll be bringing you even bigger acts throughout July & August. On Saturday 16th July 2011, live on stage you can enjoy an evening with the ultimate Liverpool soul band The Christians, playing their collection of timeless hits. Then on Saturday 30th July 2011, as part of their 30th anniversary celebrations, we are so very proud to bring you the headliners of The Vintage Festival on London's Southbank and the Scottish Rewind Festival, the amazing 80s world class sensation –HEAVEN 17. You will won't be able to see them in such an up close and intimate setting as we offer, playing their chart topping collection especially for you. With some of monies raised from the evening going to the great cause - Demelza Children's Hospices. It's going to be a fantastic night but please book early as tickets are strictly limited. During August, amongst others, we have the brilliant Paul Young with his band, Los Pacaminos. Tickets for all events can be purchased at our website <http://www.harbourgardencafe.co.uk> or by phone on 01227 271199 (Michael Marsh)
